JESUS WHO BECAME THE CHRIST: Hugh Lynn Cayce

And as we've said, as the readings certainly suggest, this is a time when the Christ Spirit is abroad in the earth.

Edgar Cayce defined this Christ Consciousness again in another reading in this way: "The Christ Consciousness is a universal consciousness of the Father Spirit. The Jesus consciousness is that man builds as body worship." Edgar Cayce reading 5749-4

Cayce was asked this question, "Are heredity, environment and will equal factors in aiding or retarding the entity's development?" "Will is the greater factor," he said, "for it may overcome any or all of the others; provided that will is made one with the pattern, see? The pattern is in Jesus." Cayce continued, "For, no influence of heredity, environment or what not, surpasses the will; else why would there have been that pattern shown in which the individual soul, no matter how far astray it may have gone, may enter with Him into the holy of holies?" Edgar Cayce reading 5749-14

Tom Sugrue, who wrote There is a River, asked a question about the Christ Consciousness and the answer to it is very succinct and direct: "Should the Christ-Consciousness

AS HELP IS RECEIVED, REMEMBER TO THANK GOD, THE GIVER OF ALL GOOD AND PERFECT GIFTS.

The Edgar Cayce readings emphasize the importance that those who are seeking help and healing through prayer actively participate in the prayer effort—praying for themselves and others on the list—creating a cooperative prayer effort. In the giving comes the receiving.

be described as the awareness within each soul, imprinted in pattern on the mind and waiting to be awakened by the will, of the soul's oneness with God?" The answer: "Correct. That's the idea exactly!" Edgar Cayce reading 5794-14

I am given to describing the soul as a three-faceted operation with mind—divine mind—and spirit and divine will. This is the energy pattern that was created as a soul. We were all created like this, all at once, long before the earth came into existence, according to Edgar Cayce's point of view. The soul had mind and spirit and will. The spirit is the energy of life, the energy pattern, and the will is the ability to choose the direction. The mind is the builder. It can build anything you move toward.

"Now we have seen, we have heard, we know that the Son represents or signifies the Mind. He, the Son, was in the earth—earthly even as we—and yet is of the Godhead. Hence the Mind is both material and spiritual, and taketh hold on that which is its environ, its want, in our experiences. Then Mind, as He, was the Word—and dwelt among men; and we beheld Him as the face of the Father. So is our mind made, so does our mind conceive—even as He; and IS the Builder. Then that our mind dwells upon, that our mind feeds upon, that do we supply to our body—yes, to our soul!" Edgar Cayce reading 1567-2
